Keep an eye on our adopted wilderness

For sometime now, our chapter (Glens Falls-Saratoga) has joined with the ADK and DEC in the “Adopt-a-Wildland” program. This is part of DEC’s “Adopt-a-Natural Resource” stewardship or ANRSA with ADK. Our adopted area is the Pharaoh Lake Wilderness Area.

As adopters, we are concerned with observing and reporting to DEC such things as: faulty privies, messy lean-to areas, illegal trail use, trail conditions, blowdowns, damaged bridges, sightings of rare or endangered wildlife, problems with bears, trailhead parking problems, incorrect or missing signs, etc.

If you are hiking in the Pharaoh Lake region and notice any of these conditions, or something that causes you concern about the condition or usage of this area, please contact your wilderness chairperson. Please feel free to comment on positive aspects of your experience in this area as well.

Dan D’Angelico: (518) 747-0700 or ddroadwarrior@adelphia.net

I will forward feedback information to the DEC.

Thank you for helping us to participate in the “Adopt-a-Wildland” program.

Mountain club adopts $3.1 million budget

As the major action of its December 3 meeting, the Adirondack Mountain Club’s Board of Directors adopted a $3.1 million budget for 2006. The budget projects a $15,000 surplus, if all revenues and expenditures go according to estimates. The budget will delay the filling of some currently vacant positions until later in the year in order to help keep expenses down.

Board members were reminded that ADK dues only cover about 22 percent of ADK’s operating budget, and that fundraising has to be a year-round project to support the programs of the Club.

In other action, the Board reiterated its policy not to amend the State Land Master Plan relating to fire towers in Wilderness, Primitive, or Canoe Areas, and to oppose attempts by the State to reclassify such fire towers as Historic Areas.

The Board also received reports from staff and committee chairs. Highlights of these reports include:

• ADK President Tom Wheeler thanked the board for its support during his three years as president.
• The Club held another successful fundraiser in November. The Harvest Moon Madness at Canfield Casino in Saratoga Springs raised about $45,000, even though attendance was one-third less than last year. Last year’s program raised $46,000.
• ADK has been granted intervention status in Federal Court to participate in a lawsuit against the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency related to coal-burning plants not being in compliance with pollution controls.
• The Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) has released a unit management plan relating to the southern end of the Northville-Lake Placid Trail which would relocate the many miles of road walking currently required.
• ADK has received a donation of $180,000 from the estate of the Slater Family.
• ADK is in discussion with a potential donor of a 20-acre parcel of land outside of Albany.
• ADK is continuing its discussions with a potential buyer of one of its lots next to ADK Headquarters in Lake George.
• ADK has renewed its insurance coverage for next year at a savings of $10,000.
• With an increase in membership over last year, the Club appears to have reversed its declining membership trends of the past few years.
• ADK enjoyed another successful year with its major national and international outings, and is planning on running 18 adventure trips next year.
• Another successful Summit Stewart Program provided full time coverage on Marcy and Algonquin and part time coverage on other High Peaks.
• The ADK Professional Trail Crew spent another successful season of working in the Catskills and the Adirondacks. The 16-member crew had 11 returnees from 2004.
• The Club has started building a Universal Access Trail with a hard gravel surface from the toll booth at Heart Lake to the shore of the Lake.

Get out and get involved!

BY JIM SCHNEIDER

The year ahead will present challenges and opportunities. I look forward to meeting them with assistance and support from our executive committee and our members. Being member-directed, this organization is unique in that individual members are able to (and encouraged to) make a direct contribution. Our challenges are centered on the strategic allocation of limited resources. Our opportunities are based in volunteerism. I believe that our opportunities far outweigh our challenges.

Have you ever considered spending a day doing trail work? Have you ever considered leading a hike? How about giving an hour or two out of your week once in a while to respond to potential members’ web inquiries or manning a table at an event representing ADK? Try it just for a new experience; Meet new people. I enjoy representing ADK? Try it just for a new experience; Meet new people. I enjoy

The Education Committee comprised of myself, Nancy and Bob Buckley and Lisa Spilde, is excited about its new “Hike and Learn” series; it is in the process of developing and hopes that you will be too. Workshops for this Spring/Fall season will entail four sessions.

The nine-to-thirteen age group will be offered two sessions: “Gizmos and Gadgets,” followed by “Survivor: Adirondacks.” Fourteen- to seventeen-year-olds will also have the opportunity to participate in “Gadgets and Gizmos” and “Survivor: Adirondacks.” These sessions will involve hands-on activities in safety and survival skills at age-appropriate levels. At the most basic level, will be lessons on what to pack and when and how to use certain items deemed necessary for safe hiking. More advanced activities will focus on learning map and compass and other navigating and communication skills (ie-walkie-talkies, GPS). The venue for each session will be our great Adirondacks trails such as Sleeping Beauty, Hadley, and others yet to be determined.

Parents will be asked to come along, and, while hiking separately with their own group leader, will discuss what their children are learning.

Watch for specifics in an upcoming newsletter. In the meantime... Anyone wishing to join the committee and help out with the planning and/or to volunteer as an instructor/group leader may call me, Linda Ranado, at 696-7265 or e-mail me at lranado@hotmail.com.

Come join us at our next meeting at 6 p.m., Friday, January 6. We’ll be meeting at my house in The Town of Day (ten minutes outside of Luzerne). Call or e-mail me for directions.

Join Ron Lester as he revisits China

Once again our peripatetic truck driving, A-hike-leading guy, Ron Lester has sought adventure at a new budget mountain destination. This time he chose China, land of the Great Wall, the world’s most ancient civilization, and many mountains no one has ever heard of.

Somewhere far, far away from just about anywhere, on the border of Tajikistan along the Kara Kam highway there is a mountain called Mustag Ata. Although this is not a steep mountain, it is very, very high. It is higher than any mountain in the Western Hemisphere. It is the third highest mountain in China outside of Tibet and the 35th highest in the world. Mustag Ata stands at 24,757 feet and is unique in that it is the highest mountain anywhere which can be ascended all the way to the top by skis. Ron took his trusty snow shoes but admits that skis are the better option.

Ron joined seven other hikers in a trek sponsored by a group called “Summit Climb.” This outfit keeps costs low by using a minimum of support personnel. The climbers were accompanied by only one guide and three sherpas. There was a cooking crew at the base camp (14,700 feet) but beyond that point everyone cooked for himself and carried his own personal gear. Forty pounds on your back may not sound too bad in the Adirondacks but when you are over 15,000 feet and the air is thin it can seem like a ton. The other pitfall of high altitude climbing is the cold. It is impossible to move quickly in high altitude and hence impossible to keep warm. Ron came home with all fingers and toes but the last few days of the climb were very unpleasant. Nonetheless, he was able to reach the top and even get his picture taken (which turned out to include everything but his face.)

If your aspirations are high but your funds are low come join us January 12th at Saratoga Library at 7 p.m. and learn how you, too, can climb big mountains without maxing out the credit card or risking your life. Along with a low oxygen tour of Mustag Ata, Ron will show you around the ancient city of Kafhgar and lead you up and over the Great Wall. Should be a blast!

 Moreau State Park Draft Master Plan Issued — With the acquisition of over 3,000 additional acres in 1998, Moreau State Park tripled in size. At that time, New York State Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation began the master planning process for managing the park and updating existing facilities. The Draft Master Plan has now been issued. It includes proposals for resource protection and for recreational use, including improved Hudson River access, additional cabin and camping areas, rehabilitation of existing camping facilities and redesign of the entrance area. The plan provides for winter use, hiking, biking and interpretive trails. It recommends designating portions of the park as Park Preservation Area, NYS Natural Heritage Area and a NYS Bird Conservation Area. Four different management areas have been identified: Hudson River corridor, Warren County area, Palmertown Mountains and the Moreau Lake recreation area. Each area will be developed according to its particular character, use and resource consideration. Send written comments to Warren Holliday, Regional Director, Saratoga-Capital District State Park Region, Administration Building, Saratoga Spa State Park, 19 Roosevelt Drive, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866 (Warren.Holliday@oprhp.state.ny.us). Copies of the plan are available for review at the Crandall Public Library, the Corinth Free Library and the Saratoga Springs Public Library.

 2005 Draft New York State Open Space Conservation Plan Released — The Club has issued an Action Alert on the draft plan, which identifies priority open space projects throughout the state. Voice your support for protecting Whitney Park (36,000 acres), Follensby Park (14,600 acres) and Catskill Park parcels including Overlook Mountain Wild Forest, Balsalm, Graham and Doubletop Mountains. Strong support of the Draft Plan will ensure that New York continues to protect important tracts of land from development. The Action Alert has been posted on the chapter website, with contact information. Written comments will be accepted until January 18, 2006.

 Saratoga County Green Infrastructure Plan — Thanks to the efforts of Saratoga PLAN, the Saratoga County Board of Supervisors has initiated a countywide open space plan that will ensure protection of open space for farmland, recreational trails, water access and significant natural areas. The public was invited to participate in a series of meetings to establish priorities. The plan is expected to be released in spring of 2006.

Come discover casual, short hikes in region

Michael Carpenter is a resident of Queensbury, New York. He moved to this area a few years ago to accept the position of Associate Professor of Criminal Justice at Adirondack Community College. A lover of the outdoors, Mike quickly set out to explore the surrounding area accompanied by his wife and faithful dog. During the course of their perambulations they would often meet people who said: “I’d like to get out and do a short hike or walk but don’t know where to go.” In answer to this perceived need, a writer was born. Mike has subsequently co-authored eleven trail guides in the past three years. These books are targeted at people who are casual outdoor people. They focus on short hikes, or short bike rides, or easy walks to enjoy wildlife viewing, or easy flat water canoeing.

Mike’s program is designed to be a beginner’s guide to hiking and will focus on the basics. He will also explore some of the wonderful natural resources in our community that a casual hiker can visit while getting some healthy exercise on the side. The audience is encouraged to participate in the discussion by sharing some of their hiking/walking adventures with the group. Mike will then provide a slide show of some interesting local hikes to conclude the program.

Even hikers who like to bag Peaks can find themselves with a day that is too hot or too short for the big climb. Then there are some who just want to go out for an hour and look at flowers and birds. Mike Carpenter has the inside scoop for all our short trip needs in two of his locally focused books “25 Short Hikes and Interesting Walks in the Lake George NY Region” and “25 Short Hikes and Interesting Walks in the Saratoga Springs NY Region.” Copies of these books will be available for perusal at our program which is at 7:30 p.m., February 16, at the First Presbyterian Church in Glens Falls. The program is free and open to the public.

I hope everyone had a very happy and healthy holiday season. I continue to enjoy meeting many of you at our monthly programs, on outings and at the various special events where our Chapter has a presence. As I write this article (it’s November), I’ve had to pull my winter hiking gear out of the closet and put extra items in my pack in preparation for a few early winter-condition hikes. I’m quite certain that I will be meeting many of our chapter members on the trail this winter season. A few days ago, I was on the Internet and had the occasion to visit a website, www.hikeSafe.com and found the following Hiker Responsibility Code. I think it is worth sharing:

Hiker Responsibility Code

You are responsible for yourself, so be prepared:
- With knowledge and gear.
- To leave your plans.
- To stay together.
- To turn back.
- For emergencies.
- To share the hiker code with others.

We appreciate and cherish our entire membership — have a safe and enjoyable winter season!

Take a scenic trip through the Swiss Alps

The Glens Falls-Saratoga Chapter will host a presentation by ADK Executive Director, Neil Woodworth. Neil will present a slide program of an ADK Adventure Travel trip to the Valais region of the Swiss Alps, with Inn to Inn hiking to the high divide between Switzerland and Italy. The photographic essay will also showcase hiking in the high country above Zermatt in the shadow of Matterhorn. The program will be held at 7 p.m., Thursday, March 16, at Saratoga Springs Public Library.

Neil, ADK Executive Director and counsel has sixteen years of experience working with ADK to protect wilderness in New York State and to promote the club’s programs in education, conservation, and responsible recreation. He has represented ADK in a variety of legal cases involving wilderness protection of the Adirondack and Catskill Forest Preserve, public navigation rights on rivers and acid rain regulation.

Prior to his service with ADK, Neil is a graduate of Hobart College and Albany Law School, and was an attorney working with Seymour Fox, P.C. He has received appointments to the Congressional Northern Forest Land Council, the Governor’s Task Force on the Adirondack Park Agency, the Governor’s Task Force on Military Overflights, the Empire State Task Force for Land and Water Conservation Funding, and the New York State Forest Preserve Advisory Committee.

Within ADK, Neil has served in many volunteer positions including: second vice committee chairman, and member of the Albany Chapter Outings Committee. Neil is active in many outdoor pursuits, including hiking, canoeing, backpacking, backcountry skiing, and bird watching. As an Adirondack Forty-sixer (No. 2036), he has climbed all of the highest mountains in New York State.

Leader Biographies

As the wonderful veterans continue their heroic contributions, we’re pleased to welcome two new leaders to the GFS Chapter.

We continue to extend this invitation to any new folks who might have interest. Come “shadow” a leader, be a co-leader ... check it out!

Just contact any one of them or me and we’ll certainly get you on board!

If just a few folks led just a few outings, it would make a difference.

Like each snowflake on a winter’s trail, we all have wonderfully different styles but share a common love and purpose in giving back.

ENJOY IT OUT THERE!!!

As a registered dietitian, Jessica is dedicated to promoting a healthy lifestyle for all, so keep an eye out for her activities.

JONATHAN MOGELEVER

Jonathan first became involved with ADK in 1989 and has been a member of the Glens Falls-Saratoga Chapter for two years. His experiences include exploring and living in the Cascades and the Rocky Mountains, several bicycle tours across different parts of the U.S., and working at Johns Brook Lodge and the Adirondack Loj. Now he lives in Glens Falls and enjoys hiking and skiing on trails throughout the Adirondacks and Catskills.
OUTINGS

PLEASE NOTE: Designated hikes (family, new member, etc.) are geared for a special purpose, but are not exclusive. If you would like to attend any outing, please call the trip leader. ONGOING OUTINGS ...

SATURDAY/SUNDAY KAYAKING
Kayaking trips — weekly paddles Saturdays and/or Sundays, January-March
Paul Martin 796-6289 or 761-0814 pitmartin@adelphia.net
Flat-water kayaking ... we are going to emphasize fun on our paddles to the various lakes in the Adirondacks. Do not fear the length of trips ... we will look out for all of you as we explore what is around the next corner or bay. The best way to find out about our trips is to get on Capt'n Dangerous' e-mail listing. If you are considering becoming a pirate then you will find out by Wednesday where the trip is, when the Pirates of the Adirondacks are meeting, times, logistics and safety issues. Earn your Pirate Patch by committing an act of piracy on an Adirondack Lake. Hope to see you on the water.

WEDNESDAY EVENING HIKES/SNOWSHOE
January-March
We will hike/snowshoe in the Lake George Recreation Center trails. Many trails to explore. We will be out for a couple hours. Pace is leisurely. Hikes are rated C. We had a great time last year. Dress warmly and bring a light. Call Paul Martin at: 796-6289 or e-mail: pitmartin@adelphia.net

A nice little Happy New Year outing. Summit has good views of the Indian Lake area and an old Fire Tower. Should be home by dinner-time. New winter hikers are welcome. Snowshoes are likely to be needed. 7.5 miles total, 2,000’ of ascent with an easy pace.

PILOT KNOB
Sunday January 1
Time: 8:00 a.m.
Rating: B
Bob Aspholm 798-8599 or pine4422@yahoo.com
We'll start at the Pilot Knob/Buck trailhead and head up the old tote road to a drainage and then go off-trail up to the ridge. Then we'll head left toward the summit and if anyone wants to we'll head down to the plane wreck site. After that we'll follow the ridge back down toward the open part closer to the lake. If it's not too icy we'll go down the open ledge route back down. This hike will require crampons and maybe snowshoes. About 1,600 ft. climbing and about 8 miles round trip. Note: much of this hike is off-trail so please call only if that is not objectionable.

TABLETOP MOUNTAIN

Saturday, January 7
Time: 6:00 a.m.
Rating: A
Jim Weed 584-9970
We will take the “normal” route up this peak on this first full weekend of the New Year! We’ll depart from the Loj, cruise into Marcy Dam, and then make our way up to Indian Falls via the Van Hoevenberg Trail. From here, when the spirit moves us we’ll break in an easterly direction and push for the summit. Mileage will be in the 10-12 range, and we’ll make a day of it, so headlamps will come in handy! Remember folks, winter is upon us, so be wise in selecting your gear.

HAYSTACK MOUNTAIN

Saturday, January 14

WHITEFACE MOUNTAINSKI/SNOWSHOE/SLED
Saturday, January 21
Time: 7:00 a.m.
Rating: B
John Schneider 584-8527
This relatively easy trip will use the road from the toll booth to get to the top of Whiteface. The easy grade of the road will allow participants to ski or snowshoe to the parking lot near the top. From there, we will hike to the top of the mountain. Spectacular views are guaranteed if the weather cooperates. The return trip down the mountain can be quite a thrill for those on skis, or those who want to bring along a sled (Flexible Flyer type). It has been quite a few years since conditions were good enough for sledding down, but I have high hopes for this year.

MOREAU STATE PARK SNOWSHOE SAMPLER
Saturday, January 21
Time: 9:00 a.m.
Rating: B
Bill Schwarz 793-2781, bschwarz@capital.net
New western trails have been added to the park over the past few years. They have some great overlooks of the Hudson River and Moreau Lake, and we’ll try to reach them. Be prepared for some climbing — these aren’t the flat loops around the lake! We’ll do six miles or so and adjourn for hot chocolate.

BIG SLIDE LOOP FROM THE GARDEN
Saturday, January 21
Time: 8:00 a.m. (The Garden trailhead, Keene Valley)
Rating: A
Mike McLean mpmclean@gw.dec.state.ny.us (315) 262-2564
An 8 a.m. start from the Garden, we will head into John’s Brook Lodge and debate along the way whether (weather) to climb up via Slide Brook Trail or via Klondike Notch Trail and climb Yard Mountain as well. Return via the Brother’s Trail. A relaxed pace.

TIRRELL POND BACKCOUNTRY SKI

Time: 7:30am
Rating: A- (intermediate)
Jan Carlson 581-9367 or Susan Johnson 581-0125
Come join us for a seven-mile round trip (maybe a little more if we ski up the frozen lake) backcountry ski trip. Tirrell Pond is a beautiful mountain pond on the Northville-Placid Trail. We will ski in from routes 28/30 near Lake Durant and stop for lunch at the pond to enjoy the scenery.

Pat McCullough 798 3186
This hike is about 6.5 miles with about 2,000 feet of vertical. We are getting a casual start at Bruegger’s, after you have read the Sunday paper. If you have thought about a winter climb, but have been unsure if you are able or just nervous because you are a rookie — this hike is for you. Old salty veterans are also more than welcome. Views of Lake George at this time of year can be outstanding!

Saturday, January 28
Time: 7 a.m.

Jonathan Mogelever 793-5293
There are miles of cross-country ski trails right on ADK’s Heart Lake Property and skiing them is a blast. Add a warm lunch break in the great room of the Adirondack Loj and you have a complete Adirondack winter experience. We will ski trails like Fangorn Forest, the Rimrock Trail, and the Heart Lake Loop at a leisurely pace in the morning and afternoon. These are moderate trails that require the basics of kick and glide and a competent wedge for turning and stopping. Ski rentals are available at the High Peaks Information Center. Ron Lester 899-4187
Our happy trek begins at the toll booth as we stroll up to the Whiteface summit (via the road) regaled by tall tales told by your leader (feel free to join in). We’ll hang around for a bit to take in the views and take in hot dogs at the snack bar — no, wait, never mind, wrong season. So, back down we’ll go (on the trail this time) and over to Esther. Next stop: Jungle (Jim Mosher?) Cobble. If you haven’t been to Juggle Cobble yet, don’t you think it’s about time you did! Then we’ll take the easy bushwhack back down to the road and complete our loop. Total distance: approximately 10 1/2 miles.

Jim Weed 584-9970
We will attempt a shot at normalcy by leaving the Loj on the Indian Pass Trail. Eventually we’ll find the Old Nye Ski Trail from the ’32 Olympics. From here, we’ll take the normal route to Nye. If one was to recall, there are streams and tributaries to be crossed. The leader will be carrying extra socks and two plastic bags (for himself). You may want to follow suit. Remember — if you pack things that you think you may need, you’ll never actually end up using them! From Nye, we’ll take a bearing and skirt the ridge line over to Street. Mileage will be in the 10-12 range, and we’ll be at it for the full day. Please be prepared for Mother Nature and whatever winter-like mood she may be in! Call leader for additional details.

We’ll attempt to tackle this critter from the Flowed Lands. We can ski in (if everyone has skis) along the Calamity Brook trail to the Flowed Lands. As we move across the Flow, we’ll meet up with our guide: the Herbert Brook. From there, we’ll stash our goods and change over to snowshoes. Our intent is to make a push all the way to the top of the drainage, which gives life to the Herbert Brook itself. We will be zigging and zagging in and out of the stream bed as we push to within 300 ft. of the summit. Once we hit this saddle, we will head in sort of a south-westerly direction, and make the final bid for the top. This has the potential to be an exhausting, 12-13 mile, full-day trip. Winter is far from over at this time, the snow will be deep, and expect dramatic temperature changes as the day progresses. In other words — bring your winter A-game! Call the leader for additional details.

Shanty Brook to Mud Pond, August 7, Jack Whitney, 9 participants
• We followed the brook up to an old beaver meadow. Turning in a north-westerly direction we hiked up a little-used herd path. We arrived at the pond. A lone loon was heard calling and made this pond very magical. This is the first time I have seen just one lone loon in a lake or pond. A lunch break was taken while some explored this magnificent pond. Time passing quickly, we soon had to return to our journey home. Participants: Bill Carpenter, Pat Desbiens, Jean Rich, Joe Stoobach, Brenda Taber, Don Taber, Eileen MacKenzie, Jerry Perrenga, Jack Whitney

Street and Nye, August 13, Jack Whitney, 9 participants
• The day was overcast and a little damp but by rock-hopping we made it across Indian Pass Brook without incident and on up to first the summit of Nye and then onto Street. We did manage to snap a few decent photos from the back side of Street and then it was back down the trail and to our cars at HPIC. It was another good day in the mountains. Participants: Bill Carpenter, Irene Fusco, Jenny Gae, Mark Havis, Norm Kuchar, Alex Lombard, Lorraine MacKenzie, Jerry Perrenga, Jack Whitney

Big Moose Lake Canoe, August 14, Jayne Boucher, 9 participants
• Rainy forecast. We almost turned around after doing the inlet, but dried out during lunch and went on to enjoy North Bay. Steady rain caught us on the way back and while we put up the boats, but we did make the best of a wet, gray day. Participants: Jayne Boucher, Ray Boucher, Bill Carpenter, Pat Desbiens, Gary Rodd, Gavin Seabury, Don and Brenda Tabor, Jack Whitney

Lower Wolf Jaw Mountain, August 21, Jack Whitney, 6 participants
• After adding an extra mile or so to the trip by “missing” the turn-off for the trail to the Jaws and having to backtrack (a scenic backtrack, though) thank you, Pat, we were on our way up the Wedge Brook Trail and eventually to the summit of Lower Wolf Jaw. The trip back down was shorter than the trip up allowing time to stop by the bridge and the beautiful waterfall. Congratulations to all participants on adding another High Peak to your lists. Participants: Bill Carpenter, Carolyn Cyr, Pat Desbiens, Susan Johnson, Lorraine Mackenzie, Jack Whitney

Jay Range, September 11, Jack Whitney, 13 participants
• Blue skies and sunshine were the order of the day. Hiking up to Jay Mountain, on the ridge up to the grassy protuberance and then on to the “Kings Throne” for pictures. A leisurely lunch allowed some of the participants to pull out their maps and identify the many mountains that can be seen from this ridge and mountain. All in all, it was a great day in the mountains with the finest people. Participants: Barbara Bilins, Ray Bouchard, Bob Buckley, Nancy Buckley, Bob Van Buren, Kate Van Buren, Pat Desbiens, Alvin Fertel, Linda Ranado, Jillian Monryon, Lisa Spicde, Sandy Yellen, Jack Whitney

West Canada Lakes Camping, September 15-18, Don Tabor, Jayne Boucher, 3 participants
• Hurricane Katrina stalled enough rain over us that our boots never dried out, but we agreed that the cooler wet weather was better than sunny hot for camping and hiking. Canoed (!) Beaver Pond, found an awesome way to French Louie’s cave, met two “lake baggers” packing lightweight canoes, stayed two nights in the best lean-to (and near French Louie’s chimney), and generally had a great time ... (had to be there!) What a beautiful place - look for this one again next year! Participants: Jayne Boucher, Don and Brenda Tabor

Lost Gorge Peak, September 25, Jayne Boucher, 5 participants.
• Low water, dry rock, and crystal pools made this a great day in the gorge, but we were unable to summit it. We did summit its namesake peak, and had good views of all but the tops of the highest mountains around. Then the group was game to finish bushwhacking the loop, and went on to DeCaesar’s for dinner. Participants: Neil Andrews, Jayne Boucher, Lorraine MacKenzie, Linda Veraska, Rich Vinciguerra

Mount Marcy, October 2, Jack Whitney, 7 participants
• It was another magical day for the journey to Mount Marcy. It was a beautiful warm fall day (no snowflakes to be seen) allowing for a rest stop at Marcy Dam and Indian Falls on the way to the big one. After spending extended time on the summit enjoying the foliage and talking with the summit steward who was most knowledgeable about the environs, we headed back home. Participants: Randy Caldwell, Pat Desbiens, Jonathan Lane, Don Taber, Bob VanBuren, Kate VanBuren, Jack Whitney

Hunter Mountain (Catskills), October 8, Pat Desbiens, 3 participants
• Five people signed up for a beautiful foliage hike to a summit with a fire tower that has a great view. The day dawned with pouring rain, a decent wind and temperatures that threatened to drop into the 40s but two hardy souls still decided this could be a fun day. We left early, missed the dipping temperatures but not the rain and wind, had a great view of the surrounding treetops and found a dry spot on the caretaker’s cabin porch to gobble down some food before heading back down again. Another fire tower for Jonathan; April is a real trooper! There were still smiles on our faces upon arrival back at the car. Participants: Jonathan Lane, April Ferrante, Pat Desbiens
Pharaoh Lake Wilderness Grand Tour, October 15, Jan Carlson and Jim Schneider, 5 participants
• By the time you read this, dear reader, the week of incessant rain will be a distant memory. But, for the five of us out there, we have heavy, wet, soggy hiking boots in the basement trying to dry out. Squish, squish, squish went the boots. Drip, drip, drip went the trees. “Sun by one (o’clock),” promised a co-leader. And the sun did show itself at 12:50 p.m. He didn’t say it would stay out, as the rain later returned. Delightful foliage and a sky hinting at clearing greeted us at Wintergreen Point. Wish you were there. Participants: Bill Bechtel, Karen Bechtel, Ray Boucher, Jan Carlson, Jim Schneider

Sawteeth, October 22, Jean Holcomb, 6 participants
• Eat your hearts out, guys! Jean’s all-women hike to Sawteeth was a blast. Leaving the dreary weather in the capitol district behind, we headed into the sunny north and hit the trail at 8:30 under partly cloudy skies. The day kept improving in every way. The scenic trail up Sawteeth is just that, scenic! Lower Ausable Lake was like a mirror as we worked our way up past one spectacular view to the next, including a great look at Indian Head. Jayne snapped pictures until her battery went dead as we meandered onto the peak. There we encountered that sudden, wonderful, in-your-face spectacle of the Great Range with the massive hulk of Gothics brooding in the foreground and the rest of the peaks marching away to a serene snow-covered Marcy. The sky was clear and windless at this point so we could enjoy a long chatty lunch with some sailors and seniors. Then we went down the direct route where some delicate footwork got us past a steep, icy decent of perhaps fifty feet. The crampons never left the packs. After that it was smooth going until we came to our final, delightful side trip to the stunning beauty of Rainbow Falls. What a “wow” ending to a perfect hike. But wait, there’s more: The High Peaks are finally showing their colors and the road to the club was lined with the red and gold of maple and beech, nature’s own exterior design. In the last mile or so it started to rain just to remind us of what a magical day it had been. Participants: Melissa Prout, Ann Mundy, Lorraine MacKenzie, Jennifer Reidy, Janice Joyce, Jayne Bouder, Jean Holcomb

Mount Adams, October 23, Pat Desbiens, 3 participants
• Getting to this hike gave us our first challenge of this day. Most of us got our first snowfall of the season on October 22-23; We got to Warrensburg and the snowplows were out plowing the 7 inches of snow that fell during the night. As we proceeded farther north, it alternated between some snow and a lot of snow — in a few spots we were avoiding trees that had fallen across parts of the road. We finally made it to the trailhead and thankfully there was minimal snow on the ground (since we didn’t have snowshoes with us), the higher up we went there was about 1-2 inches on the trail but the trees were heavily laden with snow with the branches really bent over — a beautiful winter wonderland. With some slip-sliding we made it to the summit and the fire tower and took a much-deserved break before heading back down. We arrived back at the trailhead very wet from all the falling snow off the trees but with smiles on our faces and very happy that we had persevered to enjoy a beautiful day in the mountains. Participants: Bill Carpenter, Bonnie Powers, Pat Desbiens

McKenzie, November 5, Jayne Bouder, 3 participants
• Nice day (rain was forecast), and not much snow on top. We were passed by two joggers in shorts and sneakers! (Found a skewered orange and a headband). Not having enough daylight left to connect the (trail marker) dots to Moose, we took a long lunch at Bartlett Pond and returned via the impressive lakeside camps and Whiteface Inn. Then it rained. Participants: Jayne Bouder, Nancy Morrill, Kathy Quoi

Cascade and Porter, November 6, Jack Whitney, 3 participants
• We started out in winter conditions: very wet trail, 1.5 ft. of snow on the sides of the trail, running, melting water on the trail itself. Congratulations to Sally for getting her first two High Peaks in less than desirable conditions. Glimpses of views were had from Porter; by the time we summited Cascade, the views were fantastic but the wind drove us off the summit quickly. Participants: Pat Desbiens, Sally Ross, Jack Whitney

Snowy Mountain, November 13, Jessica Gottung and Jack Whitney, 10 participants
• There was a little bit of snow as we started our journey up this just under 4,000-ft. mountain, gaining 2,106 ft. in 3.9 miles. It was a very steep climb at the end as we scrambled to the overlook and enjoyed a leisurely lunch with great views. Then it was a short jaunt over to the recently refurbished fire tower with some great views and picture taking. It was slow and easy on the way back due to some icy conditions. Dinner in Warrensburg at George Henry’s topped off a great day. Participants: Ray Boucher, Jayne Bouder, Carolyn Cyr, Jessica Gottung, Mark Janey, Cindy Kirk, Lorraine MacKenzie, Kathy Quoi, Jan Weedaman, Jack Whitney

Nud-da-ga-o Ridge, November 20, Jack Whitney, 4 participants
• Jayne Bouder was scheduled to lead this hike but called in sick the night before and I agreed to take over. Starting out from the trailhead, we headed up to the Gulf Brook Lean-To. Took a quick left and headed up to Lost Pond and then onto the shoulder of Weston Mountain where we all enjoyed the famous “Mrs. Austin’s cookies.” Continuing on the trail at times was difficult to locate but thanks to everyone’s navigational skills, we were able to complete the ridge, skipped Big Crow and headed on down. Participants: Ken Austin, Mark Gardner, Sterling Salter, Jack Whitney

Lower Wolf Jaw, December 3, Jean Holcomb, 7 hikers
• Saturday turned out to be sunny and cold rather than the forecasted snow which made for a lovely hike. The roads were clear and the light cover allowed us to make the trip sans snowshoes. The only complaint was the extensive blow down which made the trail a lot more challenging than advertised. We took the W.A. White trail in and the Wedge Brook trail back completing a nice 9-mile loop in a little less than eight hours. There were plenty of great views of Giant and Keene Valley on the way in. Great company all around, and special thanks to Ed Sheridan for taking the lead while I did sweep. Participants: Jerry Perregaux, Ann Mundy, Ed Sheridan, Howard S., George Banks, Kerry Shea, Jennifer Reidy

SIGN UP INFORMATION

Contact the Outing Leader at least two days (preferably a week), before the activity so he/she can explain the capabilities required and to determine the number attending. Failure to call may result in not knowing about cancellations, rescheduled departures, etc. Guests are always welcome, but must also register! PLEASE be considerate when signing up for a trip. Advise the leader if you cannot make a trip so as not to impact others’ plans. Trips WILL BE CANCELLED if minimums are not met, thereby affecting all parties. For safety, the MINIMUM number for Outings is: 3 people, including the leader (4 in winter). Bruegger’s unless otherwise noted in the trip description. Be there and ready to depart at the posted time.

MEETING PLACE INFORMATION

Bruegger’s Bagel Bakery
Queensbury Plaza, 711 Upper Glen Street, Glens Falls, NY 743-0097
* From NORTHWAY (I-87)
  Take Exit 19 and go east on AVIATION/QUAKER Rd. Follow .5 miles to RTE. 9/GLEN ST. Turn South (RIGHT) onto RTE.9, then left at the light into the QUEENSBURY PLAZA. Park on the Rte.9 side of the parking lot near BRUEGGERS

TRAVEL INFORMATION/CAR POOLS

We encourage carpooling to trailheads for both environmental and practical reasons (limited trailhead parking) and may alter meeting locations due to destination or participants. If you are able, it’s helpful to the ‘regulars’ to offer to drive your vehicle. If you are a passenger, consider current fuel prices, travel miles and number of passengers when contributing your fair share to the driver.

PARTICIPATION GUIDELINES

Leaders are responsible to evaluate interested parties’ fitness for that outing, review specific guidelines, and lead the trip. They are not paid guides, but volunteers. Participants are asked to cooperate and respect their authority and decisions.

*Is this the right Outing for you? For those not experienced in strenuous trips, it is best to begin with something easier and work your way up. The Leader will assist in evaluating skill level and suggest alternative outings if more appropriate. For the safety and comfort of all, the Leader has the discretion to deny participation if he/she feels someone is not a good match for that trip. Based on the expectations and skills of the entire group, Leaders may have more flexibility for some trips, so definitely talk with them. DO NOT TRY STRENUOUS OUTINGS UNLESS YOU HAVE DONE THAT ACTIVITY REGULARLY (AND RECENTLY) AND ARE IN GOOD SHAPE AS NECESSARY FOR THAT OUTING.

Hiking Needs/Preparation/Equipment

Bring Trail Food and plenty of Water on ALL hikes. *Clothing made of Polyester blends, polarguard or wool are recommended as they retain warmth even when wet. — NOT 100% Cotton clothing! It is also wise to bring raingear. Other pack essentials: compass and map, headlamp/flashlight, first aid kit, hat, gloves, and extra socks. Adirondack weather can and does change suddenly. Don’t trust the forecast or the sky based on the start of the day. Be prepared!

SPECIAL WINTER NEEDS

In addition to the preparation/equipment mentioned above, winter requires some EXTRA planning. Look for special notes in the Outing description and discuss with the Leader. Depending on conditions, participants will can expect to bring Snow Shoes and Crampons. Bring lots of Water. Dehydration comes easier in the winter and we feel its effects later ... usually AFTER the fact. Be wise with Emergency Clothing. Bring an extra wool/polypro hat, mittens and socks. Vented “Shell” pants, jackets and mittens are commonly used with warm layers beneath.

BECOME AN OUTINGS LEADER

We’re always looking for new leaders to help share the fun while “filling in the calendar.” New faces offer more varied outings while sharing their personal favorite destinations.
